Dear Sir:

I finished some time ago the picture you did me the honor of ordering, and I gave it my closest attention. I would have sent it sooner, only I preferred to send it varnished, it not being in good condition, on account of the browns, and I wished your first impression to be a good one.

The picture represents a very simple subject. A young Egyptian, clothed in a long garment of yellow silk, stands at the door of his house. A Marabout bird stands in front of it. These birds are very well known, and from them are gotten those light, delicate feathers which the women of the Occident use for ornament.

I shall be charmed, if, on the arrival of the picture, you will send me a line, and shall be very pleased to hear if I have succeeded in satisfying you.

Accept, sir, the assurance of my kindest sentiments.

J. L. GÉRÔME.

I, the undersigned, certify that the picture representing Bashi-Bazouks playing at chess, measuring 90 c. in height, by 70 c. in width, is by M. Bargue.

I can the more certainly testify to this, because I saw him do it, and because I lent him for the creation the costumes and the head-dresses.
